The Freud Café

We invite you to join us for the first in a series of stimulating talks on Freud's ideas by Toronto psychoanalysts in an informal meeting place, followed by an invigorating, open discussion about their impact on our lives today.

A FREE outreach initiative open to the university community and the general public.

Thursday, May 22, 2014

6:00 to 8:30pm

98 and 96 Harbord St., Toronto, ON M5S 1G6

- 6 pm: Meet and Greet @ Caversham to browse the book store and information table and get a seat next door at Tik Talk cafe (good wholesome food, very reasonably priced). Come early; Space is limited!
- 6:50pm: Presentation @ Tik Talk café by Professor Charles Hanly, followed by open discussion till 8:30pm

Freud and Plato: Plato's anticipations of Freud's psychology of dreams in the Republic

Plato understood that dreams seek to satisfy unsatisfied and unwanted sexual and aggressive wishes. Prominent among these instinctual wishes are incest, parricide, and cannibalism. Plato had anticipated Freud's theory of dreams as wish fulfillments and the Oedipus complex.

Charles Hanly

Professor Emeritus philosophy, University of Toronto

World renowned psychoanalyst in private practice

Author of more than 80 articles and four books on clinical and theoretical psychoanalysis

President, International Psychoanalytic Association 2009-2013
